DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

On page 1, line 5 after "08/820,231," insert --now U.S. Patent 6,581,819--.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach or suggest either alone or in combination a friction stir welding method as recited by claim 1, particularly the first and second members are located in the abutting step such that the face of the portion of the first member which is not the raised portion of the first member is in substantially the same plane as the face of the second member, and under the condition where the rotary tool is inserted from the side of the raised portion to the raised portion and the abutted portion, carrying out the friction stir welding of the abutted portion; or a structure body as recited by claim 4, particularly the end portion of the first member and the end portion of the second member are welded by the friction stir welding, providing the welding portion, and the raised portion which is connected to the welding portion and projects to the outer portion from one side face of the first member; or a structure body as recited by claim 5, particularly the welding portion including faces which are one side face of the first member and another face which is substantially in parallel to the one face, the raised portion which is connected to the welding portion of the one side face and projects to the outer portion of the member from the one side face of the first member, and the recessed portion which is connected to the welding portion of the one side face and projects to the outer portion of the first member from the one side face of the first member.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art of record that is cited as of interest is presented on the form-892.
